Austria

- According to Wilhelm Landig, secretary of the Austrian Social Movement (OeSB), a general assembly of that party has endorsed the following newly-elected Executive Committee:

First Chairman : former Major Hans Lorenz, previously First Chairman of the National Republican Party of Austria (NPOe)

Second Chairman : Franz Siens, previously temporary First Chairman of the OeSB

Secretary General: Wilhelm Landig, Vienna

This move follows upon the recent split in the NPOe which culminated in the expulsion of Osias Huerer from that party and the founding by the latter of a rival group, the National Republican Labor Movement (NRA). 1/

- The OeSB will begin publication of a periodical to be entitled Europa-Korrespondenz, which will be disseminated among European nationalist organizations and will consist largely of communications submitted by such groups.

Sweden

5. Iysvenska Rørelsen, the Swedish Branch of the Malmö Movement, held a convention in Malmö on 23-25 May under the leadership of Dr. Per Engdahl. This year, only Danish and Norwegian guests were scheduled to take part. Before the convention, representatives of the Swedish Peasant Party requested that Engdahl collaborate with that party in working out an ideological program. The Chairman of the Peasant Party, Swedish Interior Minister Hedlund, has allegedly declared himself very sympathetic to Engdahl's movement.
6. Also present in Malmö was one Norvan Duhamel, representative of the Lucht export-import firm of Dusseldorf. This firm has sought the assistance of Engdahl in connection with cement exports to Sweden. It may be recalled that the Lucht firm employed Dr. Werner Raumann, now under arrest for political conspiracy.
7. The Swedish-French Student Group created by the Iysvenska Rørelsen student leader Ake Odno-Lund, plans officially to sever its connections with Engdahl's party and to collaborate with the Student Group for Cultural Relations. The latter, a French student group formed by Pierre Pern of Paris, works closely with the Spanish Falange student organization. By this move, the Swedish students hope to be able to work together with Spanish groups without political encumbrances.
